Part II Organizational Action Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

14 Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action ► On July 30, 2026, Truxton Corporation announced that its Board of Directors approved a four-for-one forward stock split. Each shareholder of record as of August 17, 2026, will receive three additional shares for every share held after the close of trading on August 28, 2026.

15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ► As a result of the 4-for-1 stock split, shareholders received 3 additional shares for each share owned. Per Internal Revenue Code Section 307(a), each shareholder is required to allocate the aggregate tax basis of their shares held immediately prior to the stock split among the shares of stock held immediately after the 4-for-1 split. As a result, the number of shares held by each shareholder is multiplied by 4, but each shareholder's total basis and proportionate interest in Truxton Corporation remains the same.

16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ► A shareholder will divide the basis in each share held before the stock split by 4 to determine the basis after the stock split in that share, as well as the basis in the additional new shares distributed from the stock split. The data that supports this calculation is each shareholder's basis immediately before the distribution and the number of shares issued in the distribution. The record date for the split is August 17, 2026, and the distribution date is after the market close on August 28, 2026.

17 List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based ► The applicable Internal Revenue Code sections upon which the tax treatment is based are IRC Sections 305(a) and 307(a). Under IRC Section 305(a), the distribution is not taxable to shareholders. Under IRC Section 307(a), each shareholder's basis in their stock held before the stock split must be allocated between the stock held before the stock split and the additional new shares distributed from the stock split.

18 Can any resulting loss be recognized? ► For U.S. federal income tax purposes, no loss may be recognized by shareholders in connection with Truxton Corporation's 4-for-1 stock split. The laws of jurisdictions other than the United States may impose income taxes on the receipt of additional shares. As such, investors should consult their tax advisors with respect to the potential tax consequences in light of their individual circumstances.

19 Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year ► The reportable tax year is 2026 for shareholders reporting taxable income on a calendar year basis. For shareholders reporting taxable income on a basis other than calendar year, the reportable year is the shareholder's tax year that includes August 28, 2026.
